포항중앙침례교회 · 포항중앙침례교회 · 2026-07-26

Key Points

- A lack of response to God's word indicates a poor spiritual state in the community.
- Acting according to one's own judgment in faith life can lead to missed opportunities.
- Obeying God's word is a way to redeem time and seize opportunities.
- Paul's letter to Timothy is like a will filled with love and concern.

Discussion Questions

1. What is my response to God's word?

2. How does the way I have determined to live my faith affect my ability to hear God's word?

3. Share experiences in your life where you seized opportunities or missed them.

4. What lessons can we learn from the relationship between Paul and Timothy?

Apply This Week

This week, practice a life of eagerly listening to and obeying God's word.

Prayer & Reflection

God, I pray that you give me the faith to reflect on my heart before your word and to obey.
